JOURNAL ARTICLES – Online Indexing and Abstracting Services:

* Indicates that database includes full-text or full image of some articles.

ABI/INFORM Complete* – Abstracts articles in all subject areas of business and economics; covers both trade periodicals and academic journals. Very good indexing vocabulary.

Academic Universe (LEXIS-NEXIS)*
[Within this database click on “Business.”]
Business Source Elite (EBSCOhost) – similar to ABI/INFORM although more appropriate for keyword searching.

F&S Index United States. (Ref. Index Table HF 4963.F83 1993-2002) (earlier title in Book Stacks) – very good detailed company, product, and industry periodical index.

[Other periodical and newspaper indexes listed on Sources of Information on Corporations and Industries—also available on Library’s “Online Information” web page, under “Research Help—Research Guides—Business.”]

Finding a Particular Journal/Periodical:

- Some titles are in print/microform, some electronic, some both. How do you know which?
- The online catalog, UFind, will tell you what periodicals/journals the Library holds in print or microform. In the online journal databases, the full-text may be immediately accessible, or a link will be provided to take you to the full text in another system. But if you are not in a particular journal database, to determine if a journal is electronically available in full text/image, follow these steps:
  - from the Library's homepage (http://www.siue.edu/lovejoylibrary/), under the Find section, select “Journals, Magazines, and More,” and then on the next screen, “By Title.”
  - within the “Electronic Journals” search screen, enter the title of the desired journal in the space provided.
  - use the hot link(s) provided to access the appropriate database holding the journal’s full text.
